Dear Sriram,

Welcome to Rubyonrails Technologies Pvt Ltd. (Hereinafter ROR Technologies)

With reference to our discussion, we are pleased to appoint you as Intern, subject to the following terms and conditions.

1. Tenure: Your internship with us would commence on 08-December-2025 and continue to be in service as per the agreement.
2. Internship & Stipend: The first six (6) months of your engagement with the Company shall be treated as an Internship Period, during which you will be trained on the foundational skillsets required to interact with team members and work on live projects. As you are joining as a fresher, this training period is intended to equip you with the necessary professional and technical competencies expected by the Company.
3. During the Internship Period, you shall receive a stipend of INR 10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) per month, which will be payable only upon successful completion of the full six-month internship. The stipend shall be released to your designated bank account at the end of the internship period, subject to successful completion and satisfactory performance as determined by the Company.
4. In the event you choose to discontinue your internship or your internship is terminated by the Company for performance or disciplinary reasons before completion of the six-month period, you shall not be entitled to receive any part of the stipend.

Upon successful completion of the Internship Period, subject to satisfactory performance and the Company's business requirements, you may be absorbed as Software Engineer – Trainee and placed on the Company's rolls. The terms and conditions of regular employment are covered in this document

5. Responsibilities: As an Intern in ROR technologies, you are responsible for design, develop, test and implement automated systems using the ROR framework. Your responsibilities also include analyzing current systems, designing new automated solutions, writing code, ensuring quality, and collaborating with cross-functional teams to manage the entire automation lifecycle. You are expected to read documentation, ask questions, and continuously improve your understanding of the Rails ecosystem. Participating in team meetings, following Agile practices, and writing clear documentation are also part of your role. Overall, your focus is on learning, contributing, and growing within the team.

During the tenure of your employment, you will devote your full time, attention, and abilities to the performance of your assignment(s) and to act in the best interests of the company. You will also agree to comply with ROR Technologies' policies and standards in force and from time to time.

6. Location: Your current base work location would be Coimbatore. However, you may be required to work from our office premises as and when it is ready. You may also be relocated to any other location (including any other country) at any time depending on the business needs and exigencies of ROR Technologies. Transfer within India or overseas may also be through any of the subsidiaries or group companies. In such cases you would be governed by the terms and conditions applicable to the location and establishment. The need of business may require you to travel both short or long-term duration and might involve working in shifts. Your acceptance to this offer will imply that you are willing to undertake travel and work in shifts as required by the business.
7. Verification: As part of the organization procedure, we may carry out background verification check of employees joining us.
8. Compensation: On successful completion of your internship period of 6 months and absorption into the company, you will be designated as Software Engineer – Trainee with the Annual Cost to Company (CTC) of ₹ 4,25,000 (₹ Four Lakhs Twenty-Five Thousand only).
9. Working Hours: You shall be present in the office or logging in during normal working hours (9:00 am to 6:00 pm) as ROR policies. In case you are attached to any project where the client may have requirement of recording specific time-efforts, you shall comply with such requirement as well.
10. Statutory Deductions: On successful completion of the Internship period of 6 months and absorption into the company, ROR Technologies shall make necessary statutory deductions from your gross salary and directly pay on your behalf to the concerned authorities.
11. Leave and Holidays: On successful completion of the Internship period of 6 months and absorption into the company, you will be entitled to 12 days of privilege leave 6 days of casual leave annually on a pro-rated basis in addition to the national holidays. There is no advance paid leave allowed as per ROR Technologies policy. You shall inform your reporting manager at least 15 working days in advance at the time of any vacation period exceeding four (4) working days. Vacation time shall be transferable to the following year and would be governed by the leave policies that may be announced in future.
12. Status Report: You will be required to provide to your reporting manager all reports that are deemed necessary, including time sheets, periodic summaries of your work-related activities and accomplishments

- 13. Confidentiality: You are expected to maintain utmost secrecy regarding the affairs of ROR Technologies and its clients and shall keep confidential any data, information, instruments, documents, methodologies, tools, structure, business or trade secrets, formulae etc., relating to ROR Technologies and/or its clients that may come to your knowledge as an employee of ROR Technologies, during the tenure of your employment with ROR Technologies and at any time thereafter. During the period of your employment, you will work honestly, faithfully, diligently, and efficiently for the growth of ROR Technologies. You shall execute / sign such other non-disclosure agreements as and when required by ROR Technologies or the Client
- 14. Intellectual Property Rights: You agree not to disclose and assign any invention, development, process, plan, design, formula, specification, program or other matter of work whatsoever (collectively "the Inventions") created, developed or discovered by you, either alone or in concert, in the course of your employment and the same shall be the absolute property of the company. Any Intellectual Property Rights and rights to inventions are arising out of your activities hereunder, or if ownership rights cannot be transferred under applicable law, any exploitation rights relating thereto, shall be transferred to the company in accordance with applicable law. You shall, as and when requested by the company (at company's cost and expense), assist the company in perfecting the Intellectual Property Rights in any manner the company deems fit.
- 15. - 16. Non-Solicitation: You agree not to provide services to any of ROR Technologies' clients (except as directed by ROR Technologies), directly or indirectly, while employed by ROR Technologies, and for a period of one year thereafter.
- 17. Severance: You acknowledge that this association is crucial to ROR Technologies and any severance during the association will cause significant damage to the company; hence, you agree and consent that ROR Technologies will be entitled to seek all such equitable and injunctive relief as is available to ROR Technologies
- 18. Performance Review: Your performance may be reviewed periodically as per ROR Technologies policies during your association with the Company.
- 19. Governing Law and Jurisdiction: Your employment shall be governed by, construed, and enforced in accordance with the laws of India. Any claims for damages for breach of this agreement shall be made in the courts of competent jurisdiction in India and the parties agree to submit to the personal jurisdiction of such courts. Any claims for injunctive relief(s) arising out of this Agreement may be brought in any court of competent jurisdiction.

20. Termination: ROR Technologies is an "at will" employer, and nothing contained herein or in any other agreement shall alter the "at will" employment relationship that exists between ROR Technologies and you. Either ROR Technologies or you can terminate this agreement by giving 12 weeks' notice in writing to the other. However, for misconduct, gross negligence, misbehaviour or non-performance, ROR Technologies may terminate your services with immediate notice.

21. Minimum Service Period: ROR Technologies will be investing substantially in your Training and skill development. Accordingly, you are required to serve a minimum period of two (2) years from the date of joining/absorption.

In the event that you resign or your employment is terminated for any reason (other than company-initiated redundancy) before completion of the minimum service period, you shall be liable to repay the training and development cost incurred by the company. This repayment shall be calculated proportionately based on the unserved portion of the minimum service period, subject to a minimum repayment equal to one (1) year's gross annual compensation at the time of exit. The specific amount payable by you will be communicated in writing and must be remitted prior to your final settlement.

22. The company shall have the right to suspend you on full pay and benefits pending any investigation into potential dishonesty, gross misconduct, misappropriation, gross negligence, fraud or other circumstances (if proved) would entitle the Company to dismiss your services summarily.

23. Damages: You are aware that to fulfil your assignment, it will be necessary for ROR Technologies to make substantial efforts and incur expenses. If you breach this agreement, by leaving a project in violation of this agreement, ROR Technologies shall have the right to seek actual damages, including direct and consequential damages and loss of profits. In any action to enforce this Agreement, the prevailing party may recover, in addition to damages and appropriate equitable relief, all attorneys' fees and costs incurred.

24. Indemnification: You shall indemnify, defend, and hold ROR Technologies, its officers, directors, associates, and agents, harmless from all claims, causes of action, damages, obligations or liabilities or any kind or nature arising out of or connected with any act or omission of yourself during the course of the employment with ROR Technologies and thereafter
